

Kingston Rotary Club
Clem Angstrom Vocational Service Award

2010 Nomination Form

The Clem Angstrom Vocational Service award was established by the Rotary Club of Kingston to recognize an individual in the greater Kingston community who has exemplified outstanding professional achievement while maintaining very high ethical standards. Persons considered for this award must clearly and consistently demonstrate the ideals of Rotary including the Rotary motto "service above self" in the conduct of their professional activities.

Criteria for Nomination

- Live or work in Ulster County, preferably in the greater Kingston area.
- Not a member of a Rotary Club
- Nominated by a Kingston Rotary Club member OR nominated by a non-Rotarian and sponsored by a member of the Kingston Rotary Club.
- The person(s) making the nomination must identify in writing specific accomplishments the nominee has achieved to warrant consideration for the award.

Nominee Name _____

Address _____

City _____ Zip _____ Phone _____

Occupation _____ How Many Years? _____

Employer _____

Community Organizations Belonged To: _____

Other Community Activities/Involvement _____

Please describe how the Nominee displays the Rotary motto 'service above self" in the conduct of their professional and community activities. Include specific accomplishments. (Continue on separate paper if needed)

NOMINATIONS MUST BE RECEIVED BY 09/15/2010

Nominated by: _____

Signature _____ Date _____

Phone _____

Email _____

Sponsor(if Nominator is not a member of Kingston Rotary) _____

Signature _____ Date _____